South facing villa in Marbella for sale!! This lovely villa is located next to the prestigious villa area of Hacienda Las Chapas only 800 metres from the beach and located in Marbella East. It is a single level villa set in a totally fenced and secure plot. There are electric gates to a covered carport with parking for 1 car and a separate pedestrian gate off the street. In the house there is a large open plan living room with a nice German designed kitchen with all electrical appliances. There is direct access to the terrace as well. There is a master bedroom with ensuite bathroom. A second double bedroom with an ensuite shower room and a third bedroom. All the rooms have air conditioning . There is a further sun terrace with landscaped borders and a private pool next to the house. Lovely property which would be great for holiday rentals, a holiday home or a family residential villa.
